

EVAP CONDENSATE FLOW METER

Finally, a reliable flow measurement to improve critical performance metrics for the Evaporation System

- Gain valuable insight regarding thermal transfer and Evap performance
- Modern Magnetic Flow Meter “Intelligence” with No Moving Parts
- Accommodates low conductivity challenges typical in condensate applications
- Flow tube unaffected by occasional flashing phenomenon
- Built to exceed Vacuum and Temperature conditions
- Experience the new Foxboro MagPlus advantage
- Contact BioFuels Automation for “best practice” installation success
